ABOUT

After finishing my studies in communication and graphic design in France, I went to Spain to study Spanish. Currently I am a freelance graphic designer in Barcelona. My curiosity, sensitivity and persistence helped me to find a place in this competitive industry.

So far I worked for point of sales: branding, graphics applications, visual management of blogs and socials networks... These last years, i focus my work on Editorial design, for the fashion and skincare industry. My areas of interest are graphic management and edition.
